Lieutenant Colonel, Infantry, U. S. A.

Class of '36

An inspiration to all who knew him - - he exemplifies the best the University has produced.

Foreword

TO THE CLASS OF 1952, and all transfers, this is your book, your introduction to the University of Maryland. College life has fluctuated considerably in the past few years. The flood of veterans has noticeably subsided; there are more women, although they are still greatly outnumbered. The G. I. clothing hasn't worn out yet, but most of its wearers have become firmly implanted as civilian students, mature, earnest, capable, with a desire for education. True, college life is settling down, but it can never afford to slip too deeply into the abandonment which marked it in the thirties. You are entering the University for the first time and it is most imperative that you realize the responsibility of the educated person in a society which apparently is always moving but whose sense of direction does not always keep pace. Seriousness of purpose need not be overdone. The scholarship and the extracurricular activities can be readily balanced with a thorough-going social life. Remember that a University teaches not only inside, but also outside of the classroom. Your efforts alone will give you the most from both sources. Welcome to our campus: make yourself at home, and good luck!

OFFICE OF THE PRESIDENT

A MESSAGE FROM THE PRESIDENT:

Few persons realize the width of the jump between high school education and university work until they take that jump. The greater freedom of University living, the lack of restrictions of the home, the taking for granted by professors that the high school student has suddenly become a man, with all of man's recognition of responsibilities, combine to make the first semester of the Freshman year perhaps the most difficult of all four years of college.

New students will come in contact with many things that they do not under-atand. When they do, they should remember that their best friends are members of the faculty and administrative officers, whose only objective is the welfare of students. Every student in difficulty, who does not understand what he should do, ought to go to any member of the faculty he may know, or to any administrative officer, to ask questions - any number of questions that may be necessary to clear up difficulties that may exist.

University life is not the country-club existence that some humorous magazines depict, but is a dull, hard routine of work, in which men and women give long hours to achieve their ambitions. You have a long, hard road to travel, but perseverence and a little common sense will bring you to its end successfully.

You have my best wishes. Call upon us when you need help.

Sincerely

H C Byrd

H. C. Byrd
President

ADELE H. STAMP

Dean of Women

The Dean of Women provides guidance for all women students and in conjunction with the Women's League handles all matters of discipline. She coordinates the interests of all women students, handles matters of chaperonage at social functions, regulates sorority rushing in cooperation with the Panhellenic Council, and supervises the housing conditions of women students living both on and off campus.

GEARY F. EPPLEY

Dean of Men

The Dean of Men furnishes helpful guidance and sympathetic counsel to male students in connection with any of their personal problems that they desire to bring to his attention. Usually these problems are in the nature of financial need, employment, and housing. His office also handles all matters relating to the discipline of male students in conjunction with the Men's League. Dean Eppley also serves as advisor on Student Finance to the Student Government Association.

Student Government

Message from SGA President

More than anything else, in welcoming you to our campus, I want to emphasize the role which Student Government will play in your college life and the role which you should play in Student Government.

The SGA, through appropriations, indirectly supervises nearly all student activities. Your participation in these activities, publications, theatre, music, social, is the immediate benefit you derive from Student Government.

Further, your support of Student Government may become even more concrete by participating actively at the meetings of the Executive Council, thereby assuming a direct interest in the manner in which Student Government is conducted.

On behalf of the SGA then, I extend best wishes for an instructive and stimulating stay at Maryland to all of you.

Student Government Association

The Student Government Association, of which every student is a member, is the official representative body, bearing authority delegated to it by the University's Administration. Most of its leaders are elected from the student body with a few selected, to aid in conducting student government, from various organizations and honorary societies. Elections take place in the spring.

The S.G.A. consists of three divisions: The Executive Council, the Men's League, and the Women's League. The Council is the supreme governing body, and the Leagues decide on and enforce all campus regulations.

Student activities are controlled by the S.G.A. and are financed for the most part by the activities fee which is paid by all students in the University. From this fee, the money is prorated to the various activities, and the payment of this fee entitles a student to attend all S.G.A. sponsored activities.

Records of each organization are kept by the administration and are always open for inspection.

The actual work of S.G.A. is carried on by committees, the major ones are listed in the organizational chart. Students are invited to serve on these various committees, generally under the chairmanship of a member of the Executive Council. Membership of the committees should be campuswide and any student who wishes to work on behalf of the student government is most earnestly urged to do so. The only effective government is one in which all the governed participate. And, particularly, for a governing body, whose authority as students is necesarily and justifiably limited, the need for every member to contribute actively is acute and lends strength to the organization.

Men's League

President..... HARRY DOW
Vice-President..... ROBERT ROBERTS

THE MEN'S LEAGUE IS ONE OF THREE DIVISIONS of the Student Government Association and serves the male students of the University. The League is divided into two sections; the Executive Council and the Dormitory Council.

The Executive Council is composed of one representative from each class, an elected member from the Dormitory Council, and representatives from the Interfraternity Council, and the Independent Students Association. The President and the Vice-President are elected by the male student body at large. The Executive Council concerns itself with the problems of male students and the general improvement of the campus; it works in conjunction with the Dean of Men in these respects. The Council also recognizes achievement by awarding a bronze cup annually to the outstanding male senior on campus.

The Dormitory Council serves in a disciplinary capacity for all violators of the Dormitory regulations.

The Men's League office is located in Dorm. "O," Room 12, students should not hesitate to take any related problems or suggestions to the League's office.

Women's League

President.....MARY CRAPSTER

Vice-President.....JEANNE REGUS

Secretary.....JUNE DEGLER

Treasurer.....BILLEE HATCHER

THE FUNCTIONS OF THE WOMEN'S LEAGUE are to co-operate with the Dean of Women in formulating, administering, and interpreting rules governing the conduct of women at the University. Each year the League publishes a pamphlet of the regulations concerning the women who live on the campus. These regulations are revised by the League each year under the guidance of the Dean of Women to eliminate existing fallacies and to achieve a practical set of rules.

The officers are elected annually by women students, with representatives from each of the residences and from each class. The League meets once a week to act on subjects vital to the women of the University.

Aside from the regular activities of making and enforcing rules, conducting house meetings, and assisting dormitory housemothers, the League sponsors the annual May Day celebration in co-operation with the women of the Junior Class.

History and Traditions

History

In 1807 the first school of the University of Maryland, the College of Medicine, was established in Baltimore. Within a few years several other professional schools were founded and the growth of the University had begun.

A group of southern Maryland farmers in 1856 found at College Park a desirable location for the first agricultural college in the United States and the second in the entire hemisphere. The Maryland Agricultural College, as it was then known, was financed by the sale of stock at $25 a share.

Following the Civil War the directors of the College were forced to call upon the State Legislature for aid, which it gave, becoming co-owner, with the stockholders of the rapidly expanding school and farm lands. Maryland was one of the first beneficiaries of the Land Grand Act of 1862 and the subsequent federal aids to higher education.

It was in the next few years that the little agricultural college in Prince Georges County grew in student body, faculty, facilities, and import. As the spirit and numbers of its undergraduates and alumni grew, Maryland assumed a place of respect in the eyes of all throughout the state.

Having weathered a disastrous fire in 1912 the school almost succumbed to the decrease of enrollment due to the war, and again an appeal was made to the State Legislature. At this time the stockholders were bought out and the undergraduate schools at College Park became a part of the State's educational system.

Thus, in 1920, the undergraduates and professional students were joined together as the present University of Maryland, which has advanced to its present position as a leading institution on the collegiate level of education.

Traditions

No university is complete without traditions and Maryland is no exception. The "hello habit" is a time-honored and friendly custom of speaking to everyone on the campus. A strange face one day is a familiar one the next. The semester scarcely has begun before old grads are returning for homecoming, which includes the Freshman-Sophomore tug-of-war over Paint Branch Creek. All night before the big game weary freshmen arms beat a drum heralding the hoped-for victory. Soon the Rossborough Club will present one of its four yearly dances, featuring a big-name band. Then before you can say "yeah Maryland," the Autumn Carnival, with its gala events, will be behind us and the Christmas pageant on the steps of Dorm C just ahead. It won't be long then until spring and with it the Inter-Fraternity sing and afterwards the winners and losers will meet at "Zal's" to quench their thirst and debate the judges' decisions. Spring sports also arrive about this time with the annual lacrosse game with Hopkins and the battle over much-traveled Testudo. June finals and farewells follow all too quickly, but before leaving we all will stop at the Wishing Well behind Rossborough Inn to toss in a penny and ask for something we dearly desire.

Explanation of University Seal

Maryland is unique in her Great Seal, and presents a marked contrast with those of the other States of the American Union, in that it consists of Armorial bearings of a strictly heraldic character, while the others bear "emblems indicative of agriculture and commerce, prosperity, or kindred subjects represented in a pictorial manner."

The Great Seal cut in silver was sent to the province in 1648 by Lord Baltimore, thus it is three hundred years old this year, and the oldest state seal among the forty-eight. The escutcheon bore the Calvert and Crossland arms quartered. The first and fourth quarters consisted of six verticle bars, alternately gold and black with a bend dexter counter charged—that is, a diagonal stripe on which colors are reversed—being the Calvert arms; the second and third quarters consisted of a quartered field of red and silver charged with a Greek, or equal-limbed cross, classified as "Botany"—its arms terminating trefoils—and also counter-charged, that is, with the colorings reversed, red being on the silver ground and silver on the red—the latter quarterings being from the Crossland, Baltimore's maternal arms. These quarterings were surmounted by an earl's coronet and full-faced helmet, which indicated his rank in America as that of a Count Palatine—his rank in England being that of a Baron only. On the helmet rested the Calvert crest, a ducal crown, with two half bannerets, one gold and one black. The escutcheon was supported on one side by the figure of a farmer, and the other by that of a fisherman—symbols of each of his two estates, Maryland and Avalon.

Below them was a scroll bearing the Calvert motto: "Fatti maschii Parole Femine"—deeds are males, words, females. Behind the escutcheons and coronets was engraved an ermined-lined mantle, and surrounding all, on a border encircling the seal is the legend:

UNIVERSITY OF MARYLAND • 1807 • 1856 • 1920

The heraldic terms used in describing the colors in the Calvert arms are "Or" and "Sable," meaning gold and black.

Without a doubt, the most unpredictable of Maryland Publications, the Old Line (monthly student magazine of the University of Maryland) is now beginning its fifteenth year of existence.

Everchanging with the times, the fashions, and the moods of incoming editors with "revolutionary" ideas, this one-time humor monthly, one-time literary quarterly, today stands defined simply as YOUR magazine. It is designed to be produced by you, read by you, and the editors hope, enjoyed by you. The Old Line quite frankly caters only to the wants and appetites of Maryland students—none other.

If you write, if you draw, if you "business," the Old Line welcomes you. The magazine's office is in the rear of the Recreation Building. Come in and introduce yourself.

Publications Board

The Publications Board is a body of students and faculty which governs policies and finances of the four student publications, the Diamondback, Terrapin, Old Line, and the M Book.

A plan established last year stipulates that a candidate for a major position in publications must submit an application containing a statement of qualifications and proposed program. Appointments are made by the Board.

One member of the Board acts as advisor to work directly with the student publications in a supervisory capacity to carry out the decisions of the Publications Board. Faculty members, one of which is chairman, are appointed by the President of the University. Students on the Board are the editors of Maryland publications, president of the Student Government Association, and president of Pi Delta Epsilon, journalistic honorary. The editors have a vote only on matters concerning their own publications.

Organizations

Student Life Committee

The connecting link between the student body and the University administration on the Maryland campus is the Student Life Committee, appointed by the President of the University and headed by Professor James H. Reid. Composed of those faculty members who are actively interested in student affairs, it keeps a strict vigilance on all activities, acting in an advisory capacity and attempting to improve any unsatisfactory conditions that may arise on the campus.

To be active on campus all organizations must be recognized by the Student Life Committee. In its approval procedure of campus organizations, the committee encourages clubs that will not be in direct competition with one another.

Among other activities, the Committee sponsors the Freshman Mixer, cooperates in convocation, and aids the social director, Miss Leslie, in the management of social affairs for the campus year.

Other members of the committee are: Prof. Allen, Dr. Benton, Prof. Burnett, Dr. Ehrensberger, Dean Eppley, Dr. Harmon, Prof. Kramer, Dr. Lejins, Miss Leslie, Prof. Outhouse, Dr. Phillips, Miss Preinkert, Prof. Sanford, Dean Stamp, and Dr. White.

Religious Life Committee

First to greet you at Maryland will be the Religious Life Committee at the Religious Life Reception which it sponsors for all students at the beginning of the school year. The committee arranges for the traditional Christmas music played from Morrill Hall in the periods between classes during pre-Christmas week. In conjunction with the Student Religious Council, the Religious Life Committee sponsors a Religious Emphasis Day, which will develop into Religious Emphasis Week for the coming year, and a series of Firesides at faculty homes for students of all faiths and nationalities. The faculty further acts as guide to the general development of religious life on campus.

Participation

Did you enjoy Young People's meetings in your high school years? Or, do you look forward to the new experience of participation in worship services, sharing the fellowship of those of your religious faith, as you meet for devotions, round table discussions, singing, and recreation periods? To you who are commencing or continuing the activities to which christian youth today aspires the University extends the hand of fellowship and spiritual opportunity.

Religious life on campus has evolved on a large scale through the increased organization of students of every faith; interdenominational understanding has been fostered by the institution of new worship services and religious activities. The promotion of student activities is carried out by a faculty advisory group, the Religious Life Committee, by Religious Counsellors of each church, and by the students themselves through their religious clubs and the Student Religious Council.

Services

Although plans for an inter-faith chapel have not yet been realized, the student will find many opportunities for worship on the campus. Interdenominational devotional meetings are held each weekday at 7:30 A. M. in the Taliferro Room of the Library. Weekly nightcap devotions are held in the women's dormitories. On Sunday Protestant church services are offered at 11:00 A. M.; Catholic mass is also held on campus Sunday mornings. All students are invited to Sunday Evening Vesper Services in the Armory Lounge at 6:45 P. M.

Off campus, Sabbath Services are offered every Friday at Hillel House.

Military

Reserve Officers Training Corps

With the rapid increase in post-war enrollment and the re-establishment of the advanced course, Maryland's Corps of Cadets has become one of the largest in the country. Under Col. Harlan C. Griswold, who was retired on June 30, the ROTC also became one of the top five rated units in the country.

All male students except veterans must enroll in the two-year basic course, which includes instruction in military skills and in drill. Two credit hours are given for each of the four semesters of the basic course.

Students who complete the basic course or who have had equivalent training in the armed forces are eligible to apply for the advanced course. They must be able to pass physical and other qualifying examinations. Cadets for this training are then selected by a military board from among the applicants who have met all the requirements.

The advanced students, who receive a monetary allowance, serve as officers and non-commissioned officers of the ROTC regiment. Upon completion of the course and upon recommendation of the Military Commandant and the President of the University, students are commissioned as second lieutenants in the Army of the United States in one of the following branches: Infantry, Signal Corps, Transportation Corps, and in the Air Force.

The ROTC and the Military Department are housed in the Armory and the Gym. The Armory, constructed in 1943, is one of the finest in the country. The ten point rifle range affords adequate facilities for Maryland's crack teams, consistently among the best.

Mr. Frank Sykora of the Music Department is beginning his second year as Director of the ROTC Band. Members are chosen from members of the Corps of Cadets who play musical instruments. Practice is held during regular drill periods and extra scholastic credit is given to its members.

ROTC Band

The ROTC BAND, a smartly drilled, smartly equipped unit, is under the direction of Mr. Frank Sykora. The band furnishes stirring march music for drills, parades, and reviews, and makes its appearance at numerous special occasions.

All members of the ROTC who can play a band instrument and pass the auditions satisfactorily are eligible for membership. The band rehearses during the regular military period and an extra scholastic credit is given to the members.

Athletics

Inter-Collegiate Sports

The third year of peacetime athletic competition at the University of Maryland found varsity sports at a never before attained peak. After having had a two-year period in which to become accustomed to the playing habits and traits of teammates, the Old Liners are prepared for the toughest sports schedule in the history of the University.

The coaching staff which led the school's athletic forces remains the same as in the 1947-48 season. Jim Tatum, head football coach, returns with the additional duties of Director of Athletics, left vacant by the resignation of Walter Driskill. Col. Harvey Miller, head boxing coach bids fair to return the Southern Conference title to the University of Maryland. Also returning to coach the Black and Gold teams are Jack Faber, Lacrosse, Burton Shipley, Baseball, Jim Kehoe, Track, Doyle Royal, Soccer and Tennis, and Frank Cronin, Golf. Top basketball man for the second year is Albert "Flucie" Stewart while Col. Harland Griswold once more directs the rifle team.

Under the direction of Dr. Rachel Benton, a comprehensive women's physical education program is now being planned.

Southern Conference

Founded in 1921 to promote and regulate intercollegiate athletics in every form, the Southern Conference today is made up of colleges and universities in the states of Virginia, North Carolina, South Carolina, Maryland, and the District of Columbia.

Represented are Clemson, William and Mary, Davidson, North Carolina State, South Carolina, Duke, North Carolina, Furman, Citadel, Richmond, V.M.I., Wake Forrest, V.P.I., George Washington, Washington and Lee, and Maryland. Each member is entitled to one vote.

Maryland's voting delegate is Geary F. Eppley, vice-president of the Southern Conference and chairman of the University of Maryland Council of Intercollegiate Athletics.

Returning this year to prewar eligibility rules, the Southern Conference has reinstated regulations regarding freshman participation, transfers, residence requirements, and outside participation.

Maryland is also a member of the National Collegiate Athletic Association, the United States Intercollegiate Lacrosse Association, and the Intercollegiate Amateur Athletic Association of America.

A reorganized and rejuvenated football squad, under the capable guidance of Jim Tatum, gave the Terrapin school one of its most successful seasons, when the Old Liners won seven games, lost and tied two.

With a wealth of new material plus the one-two punch of halfbacks Lu Gambino (top scoring ace of major colleges last season) and Hubie Werner, Maryland is the school to watch. Particularly when they are backed by such men as Gene Kinney, Vic Turyn, Harry Bonk, and Elmer Wingate.

BOXING COACH HARVEY L. MILLER

Under the experienced eye and guidance of Heinie Miller, head boxing coach, the boxing squad punched out seven victories with one loss and two 4-4 deadlocks. The loss was to ever strong Army by a single point.

Ed Rieder, Southern Conference champion at 155 for the second year was eliminated in the finals for the national crown by 155 pound champ Herb Carlson. Hard luck, for the second year dogged the trail of Andy Quattrocchi, one of the collegiate all-time greats in the lightweight slot. Andy, with the punch of a middleweight, floored all opposition until the conference championships. In this bout he was slowed by an injured knee. Ditto in the nationals.

BASKETBALL COACH ALBERT STEWART

"Flucie" Stewart will return to coach the Old Liners Basketball team in its 1948-49 bid for a conference title. In Stewart's first year at the helm the basketeers won 14 games while losing 11. The team in Southern Conference games won 9 and lost 7.

GOLF COACH FRANK CRONIN

With a 10 win 4 loss record for the past season, the Maryland linkmen, under the guidance of Coach Frank Cronin will soon start preparing for their third year under varsity regulations.

The return of most of Cronin's experienced golfers, plus the addition of several better-than-average newcomers, serves warning on opposing schools that an undefeated season is the aim of the team.

Bill Cassedy, number one man, is the only man on the squad who will be missing next year. The others, Frank Butterfield, Reid Phippeny, Bob Clark, John Armacost and Jack Call will be on hand for the first match.

Among the season's victories was a repeat in the winning of the Western Maryland open and a win over West Virginia, undefeated in two seasons.

LACROSSE COACH JACK FABER

Maryland's eight wins and three losses in the 1948 season are a far cry from the 1947 disaster, the Terps lost all but four games, winning none of the major clashes for the worst year in Maryland's lacrosse history.

In scoring 102 goals, the Old Liners were met with a total of 57 points scored by the opposition. Recognized in the late thirties as the outstanding collegiate lacrosse power in the nation, Maryland met post-war teams with little more than reputation, the best coach in the business and a sprinkling of experienced players.

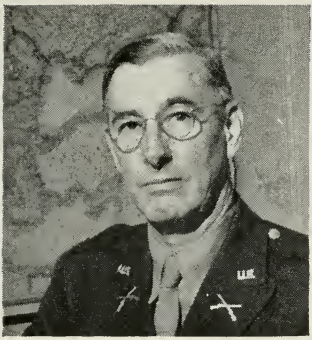
BASEBALL COACH BURTON SHIPLEY

A poor start with four victories in the first twelve games seemed to doom the diamond squad, but a fast finish gave the team a record of 13 wins, 9 loses and 2 tie games. The strength last season was at bat, with weaknesses existing in the field.

At bat, ten players who had batted more than 25 times, each finished the season above the .300 mark with Jim Moeler leading the sluggers with 17 hits in 44 tries for a .386. He was closely followed by John Hunton's .373. John Condon's .370, Al Tuminski's .361 and Joe Andrus with .358. With this as the record, the team will concentrate on fielding and pitching for the 1949 season.

Center Fielder Joe Andrus led his teammates in several departments as he romped home for 21 runs. He also showed the way with four triples, 29 hits, and 12 stolen bases. Gene Ensweller led in two base hits by swatting six, while Bob Brewer banged out three home runs and knocked 19 runs across the plate.

All-in-all, the outlook for the coming year is bright for the baseball team with both weaknesses and strengths being spotted by the coaching staff.



RIFLE COACH HARLAND C. GRISWOLD

Possessing what is considered the finest indoor rifle range in the country (according to the National Rifle Association) the University of Maryland riflemen, under the direction of Col. H. C. Griswold, assisted by Sgt. Norris went through their dual meet season undefeated, winning 19 shoulder to shoulder matches.

In addition to the regular intercollegiate competition, the Old Liners captured the Hearst Trophy award as well as winning the Service Command Trophy for first place and the District Championship. Their only defeats for the season were handed out by Army for the Metropolitan New York Area Crown, by a single point, and the loss of the National Intercollegiate Championship Crown to Navy by one point. Both of these teams fell before the Old Liner rifle team in dual shoulder to shoulder matches.

Members of the rifle team receive the same varsity "M" awards as the other teams. All students are eligible to try-out for the team, although only ROTC students may fire in the Hearst Trophy Match. Coed's may also tryout for the team. Exact dates for tryouts will be announced by the rifle coaches and will be published in the Diamondback.

TRACK COACH JIM KEHOE

Maryland colors flew high in track and cross country, under the competent guidance of Coach Kehoe, as the teams went undefeated in dual competition. The track team won six, the cross country won five.

TENNIS COACH DOYLE ROYAL

A 5-3-1 record was sported by the 1948 tennis team under the coaching of Coach Doyle Royal, though several meets were held with part of his squad on the sidelines due to injuries. Although not an exceptional record, it is far from bad and the coming season is expected to be even better.

Big guns of the team last season were Tom Beight who won four of his singles matches while losing only one, Ed Miller with a 4-2 record and Babe Rothenhoefer with 6-3. Ed LaBerge and Miller teamed in the doubles to win five matches while losing one.

SOCCER COACH DOYLE ROYAL

Soccer, once more a varsity sport, rolled into high gear last season when the team went undefeated, with a single tie to mar their record. Included in their wins was the defeat of Temple, recognized national champs, who was sporting a 19 game, three year winning streak. In all, Coach Royal's charges won six matches with a total point scoring of 27 against 8 by the opposition.

The power demonstrated by the soccer team last season was reminiscent of the 1941 squad which won eight games, seven of which were shutouts. With the contemplated return of most of his regulars of the 1947 season, Coach Royal expects an even better team than last year.

In addition to regular varsity games, the team sent members on the road with a conference team which toured a large section of the country with exhibition games. Three stars of the team, Dick Cleveland, Beach, and Eddie Rieder were also members of the semi-final Olympic tryout team for soccer.

WRESTLING COACH WILLIAM KROUSE

Coach Krouse's charges won five meets while losing the same number, but numbered among their victims such powerhouses as North Carolina State and V. M. I. This is an improvement over 1947's 2-6 record, but the team remained in fourth place in the Southern Conference Tournament standing.

The wrestling team has had two years to become conditioned by Coach Krouse who has his eyes on the conference championship held by Washington and Lee. Pacesetters for last season were Jim Scott, 145, and Bob Marsheck, ace at either 165 or 175, who both won nine contests. Next in line was Ed Gurny, 135, who won eight.

WOMEN'S INTRAMURAL DIRECTOR DR. BENTON

During the war years when physical fitness of every person in America was being stressed, Maryland took the lead in building one of the finest intramural athletic programs in the nation. Under the direction of Dr. Rachel Benton and Jim Tatum, the women's and men's athletic departments are carrying on that program with even wider participation than was thought possible.

The games are played on the athletic fields and in the field houses and gymnasiums of the University under the eyes of trained officials.

Members of the winning teams are awarded gold and silver terrapins with the organization being awarded a trophy. The women's teams yearly compete for the Sigma Kappa sorority trophy which is presented to the house compiling the most points through placing first, second, or third in team competition during the season.

Freshman Sports

Though varsity sports have been running at top speed since the end of the war, freshman sports have remained inactive until the past season. But, with the reinstallation of the Southern Conference ruling pertaining to freshman participation in sports, frosh teams are moving into high. These teams will be the governing factor for the selection of varsity stars for the various sports during the last three years of the students' stay at the University of Maryland.

Varsity Sports

Varsity competition at the University of Maryland is under the direction of Jim Tatum, director of athletics and head football coach, and is carried on in every major sport. These are football, basketball, baseball, boxing, track (indoor, outdoor, and cross-country), lacrosse, soccer, rifle, tennis, golf and wrestling. Soccer is a 1948 addition to the varsity-standing sports.

Council on Intercollegiate Athletics

All athletics at Maryland operate under the direction of the Council on Intercollegiate Athletics of which Geary F. Eppley is chairman.

Other members are Dr. William B. Kemp, Dr. William Supplee, Dr. Ernest Cory, and James Tatum, Arthur I. Bell, president of the General Alumni Council, and Louis C. Eisenhauer, president of the Student Government Association, hold membership ex-officio.

Rally Committee

Chairman.....HERB SIEGEL

The Rally Committee, under the supervision of the Student Government Association. was formed last year to enable the student body to conduct better pep rallies and half-time ceremonies at all athletic events here. The group will also arrange transportation for student who wish to attend the away games. Different types of entertainment will be planned for the half-time of games played on the campus and in Washington. Transportation will be furnished for those students who wish to attend the games in Washington.

Fraternities

Fraternity Criteria

(This article is printed by request of the Interfraternity Council)

The National Interfraternity Conference was founded in 1908 for the purpose of discussing questions of mutual interest and to make such recommendations from time to time as it deems wise. It is composed of sixty-four national fraternities which meet strict qualifications for membership. Its annual conferences are attended by about three hundred and fifty deans of men and college presidents. It sponsors the National Undergraduate Councils on campuses all over the United States and Canada, which meets in conjunction with the Conference itself. It publishes a Year Book, the report of its annual meeting, in which much valuable information about college fraternity life is included.

In the fall of 1934. the Executive Committee of the Conference and the Educational Advisory Council reduced to writing the following criteria in order to further advance co-operation between fraternities and education institutions. The statement was subsequently approved by the American Association of Deans, Advisers of Men and by the Conference itself. It reads as follows:

We consider the fraternity responsible for a positive contribution to the primary functions of the colleges and universities, and therefore under an obligation to encourage the most complete development of its members, intellectual, physical and social. Therefore, we declare:

1. That the objectives and activities of the fraternity should be in entire accord with the aims and purposes of the institutions at which it has chapters.

2. That the primary loyalty and responsibility of a student in his relations with his institution are to the institution, and that the association of any group of students as a chapter of a fraternity involves the definite responsibility of the group for the conduct of the individual.

3. That the fraternity should promote conduct consistent with good morals and good taste.

4. That the fraternity should create an atmosphere which will stimulate substantial intellectual progress and superior intellectual achievement.

5. That the fraternity should maintain sanitary, safe and wholesome physical conditions in the chapter house.

Fraternity Hints

Being a Brother in a fraternity means much more than merely wearing a shining pin on your sweater; you will be expected to devote your time and interest to the task of upholding and furthering the standards and traditions of the fraternity of your choice.

In a few weeks, the doors of these Greek letter organizations will swing open and rushing will again be underway. The decision concerning fraternities represents an important crossroad in your whole future, and your choice consequently should be made with great care. These hints may assist you during rushing. In fairness to yourself. do not be "high-pressured" into committing yourself to one fraternity without visiting the rest of them beforehand.

Do not feel that you are a social outcast if you fail to receive a bid from the fraternity of your choice; fraternities have to make many snap judgments on rushees because of the large number being rushed in such a short rush period.

Know the financial set up of the fraternity in which you are interested—the dues may be beyond your means.

Attempt to meet all of the Brothers when attending a rush function in order to get an accurate picture of the fraternity. GOOD LUCK!

Interfraternity Council

President.....Bob Martel

The local chapter of the Interfraternity Council was founded in 1926 for the purpose of maintaining harmonious relations between the University and the Fraternities and among the fraternities themselves. The Council also sponsors the annual interfraternity athletic program, and the Interfraternity scholarship and activities cups which are presented each year to the fraternities outstanding in these fields of endeavor.

Membership on the Council consists of the president and an elected delegate from each of the eligible fraternities.

Sororities

Panhellenic Creed

"We, the fraternity undergraduate members, stand for good scholarship, for guarding of good health, for wholehearted cooperation with our college's ideals for student life, for the maintenance of fine social standards, and for the serving, to the best of our ability, of our college community. Good College citizenship in the larger world of alumnae days is the ideal that shall guide our chapter activities.

"We, the fraternity women of America, stand for preparation for service through the character building inspired in the close contact and deep friendship of fraternity life. To us, fraternity life is not the enjoyment of special privileges but an opportunity to prepare for wide and wise human service."

Panhellenic Council

President ..... LEE AULT

The purpose of the Panhellenic Council is the maintenance of a wholesome sorority spirit and inter-sorority relations within the University, to further sound scholarship and high social standards, and to compile rules governing rushing, pledging, and initiation.

Textbooks and school supplies are available at the Student Supply Store, in the Administration Building basement. The Maryland Book Exchange, opposite the South Gate, also handles books and supplies.

Campus Dress

Very informal dress is the rule for classes, where cleanliness and neatness, not style, are the earmarks of good taste. In the evenings, clothes of little more formality are usually worn. Formals, blue jeans, swim suits and athletic clothes are worn only upon the appropriate occasions.

Church Services

Jewish Services are held Friday evenings at 7:30 at the Hillel Foundation, on Knox Road at the Washington-Baltimore Boulevard. Catholic Mass is held on Sunday at 9:15 and 11 A. M. in Building EE. Protestant Services are held in the Administration Building Auditorium at 11 A. M. Sunday. Interdenominational Vesper Service is held on Sunday at 6:30 P. M. in the Armory Lounge.

Class Attendance

Attendance at all class meetings is compulsory. Excuses for absences should be submitted to the office of the Dean of the college on the first day of return after a protracted illness. Further information is given in the Academic Regulations.

Counseling Services

Assistant Dean of Men, Gilbert T. Walker acts as student counselor and helps students with personal problems. Academic and vocational guidance is provided by the Psychological Testing Bureau in Building DD.

Directory

The Student and Faculty Directory, which gives the addresses and academic classification of all students, is published shortly after registration and is available at the Student Supply Store.

Distribution of Publications

The Diamondback is available at stands in the Administration Building, the Library, the Engineering Building, the Arts and Sciences Building, and the Recreation Building on the days of publication at 9 A. M. The Old Line is delivered to dormitories, fraternity and sorority houses, and is available in the Administration Building and the Recreation Building on the day of publication. The Terrapin plan of distribution will be announced at the time of publication. All three publications are free to students upon payment of the activity fee.

Eating

In addition to the Dining Hall, students will find meals on campus in the Cafeteria in the Dining Hall basement and snacks in the Recreation Building. In College Park there are several places to eat, of varying caliber and price range.

Employment

William Cooney, in the Dean of Men's office, will help and advise students who are seeking part-time jobs.

Infirmary

The Infirmary is open six days a week from 8 A. M. until 4:30 P. M. and on Sunday from 10 A. M. until noon. A nurse is on duty 24 hours a day and in emergencies students may call at any time.

Library

The University Library is open from 7:30 A. M. until 10:00 P. M. Monday through Friday. On Saturday the hours are 7:30 A. M. until 5 P. M., and on Sunday 3 P. M. until 10 P. M.

Living Accommodations

Doyle Royal, in the Dean of Men's Office is the director of student houses and has information about off-campus rooms for single and married students.

Mail

Mail is delivered to students through the Campus Post Office. Messages from the administration and campus organizations are also delivered to these boxes.

Recreation Building

A lunch counter, tables, and facilities for table tennis, pool, and card playing are provided in the Recreation Building. There is also a lounge in which students may read or study in quiet.

Scholastic Requirements

A student must receive a passing grade in at least one-half of the credit hours for which he or she is registered. Additional information is given in the Academic Regulations.

Religious Counselor's Office

Students seeking religious guidance will find a minister on call in the Religious Counselor's Office in the Administration Building basement during class hours. Information of campus and nearby church services is available here.

Telegram Service

Telegrams are delivered or telephoned to the residences of students, and therefore a complete address should be given on incoming telegrams. They may be sent at any pay station phone.

Telephone Service

Pay station telephones are available in the dormitories, in the Administration Building, and in the Library. The Student and Faculty Directory includes campus or local phone numbers of all students.

Tennis Courts

Two groups of tennis courts are available to students on a "first come" basis. One is behind the Women's Field House, the other behind Byrd Stadium.

Transportation

Greyhound and Trailways buses leave on convenient schedules to Washington and Baltimore. Local bus and street car lines give rapid transportation to Hyattsville, Greenbelt, Mt. Rainier, and Silver Spring.

Traffic

Campus traffic is governed by the regulations set forth by the campus police force. Cars on campus are restricted to the parking areas. State police assist in the enforcement of these regulations.

Veteran's Contact Officer

The Veteran's Administration representative has an office in the basement of the Administration Building.

Recreation Center

MISS MILDRED MADIGAN, Manager

Fast becoming the place to go on campus, the "Rec Hall," as it is affectionately known, opens its doors wide to day-dodgers and resident students alike twelve hours a day. "Meet you at the Rec Hall" is perhaps Joe and Jane Terp's favorite expression.

Unwrapped only last December, the Rec Hall has since seen few days when shakes haven't passed over the Snack Bar, celery hasn't been chomped in the Sandwich Room, or loungers been lacking in the Lounge. And, of course, the Game Room has been the scene of an unending parade of people who play checkers, people who play chess, people who shoot pool, and people who trump their partner's ace . . .

A Few Extra Statistics . . . the Snack Bar handles close to 2,000 snack seekers a day . . . there are forty-five chairs plus a dozen davenports in the Lounge . . . the Meeting Room can hold seventy people holding seventy tea cups . . . the Rec Hall boasts one of the few women's lounges on campus . . .

Located just a few steps from the Women's Field House, it is a university phenomenon in that it is the only Maryland building that provides ashtrays for smokers.

Cheer Leaders

Head Cheerleader.....ELIZABETH SIMPSON

Nucleus of Maryland spirit is the battery of cheer leaders who conduct the Terp cheering sections in their songs and cheers. It is these cheer leaders who perform the task of instilling the traditional Maryland spirit throughout the student body. The cheerleading squad works in close cooperation with the Rally Committee, and the head cheerleader is a permanent member of the Executive Board of that body. Tryouts for the squad are held at the beginning of each football season.

Pep Squad and Mascots

The Pep Squad is an organization of tumblers who perform acrobatic stunts at Terp athletic contests. "Moe" and "Joe" Terp are the two Maryland mascots who cut Terrapin-like capers in Black and Gold, and Red and White costumes at Maryland athletic events. Both the Pep Squad and the Mascots are a part of the Maryland Rally Committee.

Alma Mater

Words and music by Robert Kinney, '40

Hail! Alma Mater!
Hail, to thee, Maryland!
Steadfast in loyalty,
For thee we stand.
Love for the Black and Gold
Deep in our hearts we hold,
Singing thy praise forever,
Throughout the land.

Sons of Old Maryland

(Tune: "Sons of America")

Sons of old Maryland
Old Maryland needs you!
Stand by your colors, boys,
And to them e'er be true!
Fight for old Maryland,
Old Liners stand,
Defenders of the Black and Gold
Throughout the land!

Terrapin Drinking Song

Words by A. Manley Powell, '41
Music by Wilmer Orpwood, Jr., '43

Drink to the Terrapin!
All bold hearted men.
We have no fear of hell,
For we're loyal sons and fellows.
Drink to the Terrapin!
May God bless her sons!
When the toast is in the cup,
Bottoms up! Bottoms up!
To Maryland.

Victory Song

Maryland, we're all behind you,
Wave high the Black and Gold.
For there is nothing half so glorious
As to see our team victorious.
We've got the team, boys,
We've got the steam, boys,
So keep on fighting, don't give in!
M-A-R-Y-L-A-N-D (yell)
Maryland will win!

Cheers

1. Red Hot Yell

Our team is red hot
Our team is red hot
Our team is red hot
Red Hot, Red Hot, Red Hot!

2. Fight Yell

Fight team fight!
Fight team fight!
Fight team, Fight team
Fight! Fight! Fight!
Yea Team! Yea Team!
Fight! Fight! Fight!
